

As a consumer in the state of Indiana I urge you to reject the challenge to The Indiana Telephone Privacy law. It is obvious that the challenger, the Consumer Bankers Association, is a special interest group and does not have the best interest of the Indiana consumer at heart!